L E G A C Y

The Phonographic Archives of Tropical Andean Chicha and Peruvian Cumbia music from 1968-1988 through this practical guide to vinyl records carefully and digitized through research work on several Peruvian bands of this musical genre published in the 60's s to 90's

It was the appearance of cassette piracy in the eighties that allowed the genre to spread and subsequent groups to live off of contracts throughout the Peruvian country. It is a consequence of the presence of the genre on the radio and piracy.

Northern Cumbia

The Vinyl Collection: Peruvian Psychedelic Chicha & Retro Cumbia

Tony Rosado, known as 'El ruiseñor de la cumbia', was one of he first voices of Armonía 10

Agua Marina, This emblematic group from Sechura, made up of the Quiroga Querevalú brothers.

Cumbia from northern Peru is a musical style characterized by wind instruments and village bands, literally, that played at patron saint festivals and weddings discovered by the infopesa label in the late seventies. Volumes include play lists with representative songs.

Peruvian Amazon Psych Cumbia

The Vinyl Collection:

Peruvian Psychedelic Chicha & Retro Cumbia

The fusion between cumbia and psychedelia in the deep Amazon that played at patron saint festivals and weddings discovered by the Infopesa label and Volcán first decentralized record label in Peru, Music Shop, Universal, Decibel, Imsa Records but also local label Llerena. The phenomenon of Amazonian cumbia grew outside Pucallpa and Iquitos in the late seventies.

Peruvian Psychedelic Cumbia Coastal Cumbia

The Vinyl Collection: Peruvian Psychedelic Chicha & Retro Cumbia

Members of the Destellos: Fernando Quiroz, Enrique Delgado, Carlos Ramírez and Tito Caycho. Edith Delgado as designer of the first LPs

The creator of psychedelic cumbia was Peruvian guitarist and songwriter Enrique Delgado Montes, leader of Los Destellos. Peruvian cumbia band founded in 1966 They pioneered the psychedelic chicha sound in Peru. Electric cumbia master, he mixed cumbia with pscodelia, beat and bugalú., mixing Colombian music, surf and psychedelic rock, Peruvian folk, and Cuban rhythms.

Peruvian Chicha Style Carretera Central

The Vinyl Collection:

Peruvian Psychedelic Chicha & Retro Cumbia

Teo Laura (Director and first guitar)

"the sound of the Carretera Central" with the king of that style, Teo Laura Amao. El Sonido de la Carretera Central brings rare essential tracks, spanning from 1973 to 1985, featuring various groups that Teo wrote and arranged songs for. Bands like Los Sanders, Los Blue Kings, Costa Azul, and of course, Los Jharis, with their hard rock and soul-influenced cumbia songs, are mainstays in the neighborhood known as ÑaÑa, as well as various other working class barrios in Lima, and Teo worked with all of them. Compiled from various 45, LP and cassette releases, this is just the tip of the iceberg for the uninitiated. We're sure this compilation will get you hooked on Teo's unique guitar slinging and his often imitated but never equaled 'estilo Carretera'.

Peruvian Cumbia 90

Tecnocumbia Cumbia Sanjuanera Chicha

The Vinyl Collection:

Peruvian Psychedelic Chicha & Retro Cumbia

Rossy War

Corazón Serrano

In the 1990s, thanks to the talent of Rossy War, who called herself "The Queen of Tecnocumbia" of Peru starting in 1995, creating her own variant as a derivation of Mexican cumbia fused with Peruvian cumbia.

Corazón Serrano is a Peruvian cumbia musical group founded on February 2, 1993.
